

Donco Homes Open New Home Tract

Donco Homes, located three blocks north of Carson street on Figueroa avenue, now offers local home seekers moderately priced two and three bedroom homes of six individualized exterior designs and two different and original floor plans in their newly opened home tract.

With low down payments offered to veterans, Donco Homes are in accordance with the plans, specifications, and inspections of the Veterans Administration.

The two bedroom homes, which sell for $8650 have approximately 900 square feet of floor space plus a garage. There is about 1100 square feet of floor space in the three bedroom homes. They sell for $9600.

Features of these architectural designed homes are garbage disposal units, incinerator and clothes poles, closets and built-in wardrobes, electric bath heaters, large dual furnaces, select oak floor finish, and ceramic tile kitchen.

Also making for more comfortable living in these homes are the large service porches, breakfast space in all kitchens, plenty of cabinets and cupboards, venetian blinds and sewers in and paid for.

Home on Leave After Active Duty

George Costa, gunner's mate 1st class, of 2756 Gramercy avenue, is home on a thirty day leave to visit his wife, Norma and three children. Costa has been in active duty for the past six months in Korean waters aboard the U.S.S. St. Paul. He has been away from home for a year and saw his youngest child for the first time during this leave.

Watches Presented To High School Seniors by Garry's

Two watches will be presented by Garry's Jewelers to two lucky graduating Torrance High School seniors sometime before the Senior Breakfast, June 4. One will be given to a girl senior and one to a boy senior.

A time contest, it is run by means of a large eight-day clock. Sometimes before the senior breakfast it will stop. The names on the blank will be awarded the watches.

This event is annual with Garry's Jewelers, and with the cooperation of the seniors, it will continue.

All seniors have to do for eligibility to win one of the watches is to go to Garry's Jewelers in Torrance and register their names. The store is open from 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. every day and from 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Friday.

Lawson's Give Watches to Two Seniors

All Torrance High School Seniors are urged to register their names at Lawson's Jewelers, 1317 El Prado, so that they may be in the running to win a new Bulova watch. It was announced by A. Robinson, of Lawson's.

As a newly begun annual event, Lawson's will present a new Bulova watch to two high school seniors, one boy and one girl 10:30 a.m. Saturday, June 2. Names of all students who register will be put on a wheel. This wheel of chance will be spun in the store at the mentioned date. Where the pointer stops will be the names of one senior boy and one senior girl.

Youth Hurt When Cycle and Police Auto Collide

Now at home after being injured when his bicycle and a police car collided here late Thursday, May 17, is William Rogers, 8, of 1738 Fern avenue. The mishap occurred on Sonoma street near Crenshaw boulevard at about 6 p.m.

Taken to Harbor General Hospital, the boy was released May 20 to go home. It is said that he suffered a broken leg as the result.

The driver of the patrol car, Officer Archie Jackson, 27, of 2108 Dominguez street, said he did not see the boy until too late to avoid the collision. The auto was proceeding at a slow rate of speed, it was reported.

Lucky winners of the watch. Robinson said that the seniors do not have to be present at the event to win the watch. All seniors, however, are invited and urged to attend.
